

Tysea Hill
Stapleford Abbots | Essex | RM4 1JU

KEY FEATURES

A fantastic development opportunity to create one or two houses to your own specification in the splendid rural village of Stapleford Abbots. There is also space to create equestrian facilities as the plot is set in two acres of land.

The existing detached four-bedroom house is situated on the corner of Tysea Hill and Murthering Lane and boasts a substantial 'in and out' driveway offering numerous parking spaces. Through a gate to the rear the land consists of a considerable area of hard standing; a garden with a pond; a barn which has planning permission granted for a three-bedroom bungalow. A detached double-garage is an additional benefit and could be reconstructed as a private entrance to the three-bedroom bungalow, subject to any further relevant planning permissions.

Stapleford Abbots offers a wonderful country lifestyle and benefits from its proximity to Brentwood, which is only 3.7 miles away, with the new Elizabeth Line offering direct links to Central London and beyond. Theydon Bois and Epping are both only 6.7 miles away, where you will find Central Line stations.

This is a fantastic development opportunity to create two separate dwellings to your own specification in the splendid rural village of Stapleford Abbots.

We have been advised that the title will need to be split and is subject to a land survey mapping out the relevant boundaries.

SELLER INSIGHT

“ This has been our family home for over thirty years and to our knowledge the house is over 200 years old.

We have all been able to enjoy a rural lifestyle, having dogs and horses and nurturing our beloved garden, which we have shared with family and friends over the years, hosting many celebrations.

As children we loved our pond where we kept a variety of fish, and as we grew, we could also appreciate the closeness to the city, so we were able to have a great life balance living the best of both worlds.”*
