STEP INSIDE

Built in 1920 and thoughtfully transformed for modern family living, is this remarkable period residence that effortlessly combines timeless character with contemporary luxury. Over the past five years, the current owners have undertaken an extensive programme of sensitive refurbishment and extension, carefully preserving the home's original charm while creating an exceptional living environment designed for twenty-first century life.

A welcoming entrance porch opens into an impressive reception hall, immediately setting the tone for the accommodation beyond. At the heart of the home lies a magnificent open-plan living space, expertly designed to bring family and friends together. The elegant family room flows seamlessly into the stunning 33-foot kitchen and dining area, creating a vibrant hub for both entertaining and everyday living.

The bespoke kitchen has been imaginatively designed by the current owners and showcases a stylish 1970s-inspired colour palette, complemented by an extensive range of contemporary cabinetry and worktops. A wealth of integrated appliances includes three ovens, while a built-in ice bucket adds a touch of luxury for entertaining. The dining area comfortably accommodates large family gatherings and, together with the family room, benefits from a striking wall of bi-folding doors opening directly onto the garden terrace, blurring the lines between indoor and outdoor living.

For quieter occasions, a separate triple-aspect sitting room provides an inviting retreat, bathed in natural light and offering a more intimate setting in which to relax.

Further enhancing the ground floor accommodation is a generously proportioned utility room featuring a second dishwasher and fridge freezer, a dedicated plant room housing the home's control systems, a cloakroom and an additional WC, ensuring practicality matches the property's impressive scale.

The first floor offers six beautifully appointed bedrooms together with a luxurious family bath and shower room. Four of the bedrooms benefit from built-in wardrobes and three have stylish en-suite shower rooms, providing excellent accommodation for family members and guests alike.

Occupying the entire second floor, the principal suite is truly spectacular. This private sanctuary features a spacious sleeping area, dedicated dressing space and a sumptuous en-suite bath and shower room. Two Juliet balconies provide breathtaking elevated views towards the sea and across the bay to Dungeness, creating a truly special setting in which to begin and end each day.

Outside, the property continues to impress. To the front, a substantial driveway provides parking for numerous vehicles and leads to the garage. The rear garden is both secluded and generously proportioned, featuring a large raised decked terrace ideal for al fresco dining and entertaining, together with extensive areas of lawn that extend around the side of the property, offering ample space for family enjoyment.

This property represents a rare opportunity to acquire a substantial and beautifully renovated period home that successfully blends the character and craftsmanship of its 1920s origins with the luxury, comfort and functionality demanded by modern family life, all within one of Hythe's most desirable residential locations.

SELLER INSIGHT

"Having enjoyed life at Battlemore for several years, one of the aspects we have treasured most is its exceptional location. St John's Road is widely regarded as one of Hythe's most prestigious and sought-after residential addresses, occupying an elevated position that provides wonderful views across the town, towards the English Channel and along the coastline to Dungeness. Despite its peaceful setting high on the hillside, the house remains wonderfully connected to everything that makes Hythe such a desirable place to live.

One of the greatest luxuries of living here is being able to leave the car at home and walk into the heart of Hythe. The vibrant High Street offers an excellent selection of independent shops, boutiques, cafés and restaurants, creating a genuine sense of community and coastal charm. Everyday conveniences are equally well catered for, with four supermarkets, including Waitrose, Sainsbury's and Aldi, as well as doctors' surgeries, pharmacies and a range of professional services all within easy reach.

For those who enjoy the outdoors, Hythe's attractive and unspoilt seafront is just a little further away, providing miles of coastline to explore, while the picturesque Royal Military Canal offers beautiful waterside walks, cycling routes and opportunities to watch local wildlife. The combination of sea, countryside and historic surroundings creates a lifestyle that feels both relaxed and effortlessly sophisticated.

The area is exceptionally well served by recreational facilities. Golf enthusiasts are particularly spoilt, with both Sene Valley Golf Club and the renowned Etchinghill Golf Club nearby, offering outstanding courses and facilities. In addition, residents can enjoy the amenities of the Hotel Imperial Leisure Centre, together with local cricket, squash and bowls clubs, providing something for every age and interest.

Families are drawn to this area for its excellent educational opportunities. Well-regarded local schools include Hythe Bay Church of England Primary School, Saltwood Church of England Primary School, St Augustine's Catholic Primary School and Brockhill Park Performing Arts College. For older students, the highly respected boys' and girls' grammar schools in Folkestone are also readily accessible, making the location particularly appealing for growing families.

Connectivity is another significant advantage. Sandling railway station is approximately 1.5 miles away and offers convenient rail links, while Junction 11 of the M20 is approximately 2.3 miles from the property, providing excellent road access to London, the wider motorway network and the Kent coastline. For commuters, the High Speed service from Folkestone West and Ashford International offers swift connections to Stratford and London St Pancras, making travel into the capital remarkably convenient.

For those who travel frequently, whether for business or leisure, the location is hard to surpass. The Channel Tunnel Terminal is only around three miles away, placing continental Europe within easy reach and making spontaneous trips to France and beyond a genuine possibility. The Port of Dover is also approximately twelve miles away, further enhancing international connectivity.

What we have always loved most about Battlemore is the balance it offers. It combines the tranquillity, views and exclusivity of an elevated position with the convenience of being close to excellent schools, leisure facilities, transport connections and daily amenities. It is a location that truly delivers the very best of coastal living, without compromising on practicality or accessibility."
